RESOLUTION:

Mr. WISHART – Keeping More Money on Manitoba Tables

20. WHEREAS the former Provincial Government loved raising taxes, and making life less affordable for Manitobans each and every year; and

WHEREAS during their tenure the previous Provincial Government took money off the kitchen tables of Manitobans, and put it onto its own cabinet table; and

WHEREAS the previous Provincial Government raised 15 different taxes in 14 years, resulting in the highest taxes west of Quebec; and

WHEREAS under the previous Provincial Government, despite it making promises to the contrary, Manitobans were taxed more on services such as salon and hair care services, wills, and raised the PST; and

WHEREAS Manitoba Hydro rates under the previous Provincial Government rose as much as 40% due to mismanagement of major infrastructure projects, placing a massive burden on Manitobans; and

WHEREAS the previous Provincial Government drained its “rainy-day” fund as a personal piggy bank, forcing the current Provincial Government to clean up its mess after 17 years of financial mismanagement; and

WHEREAS the current Provincial Government is focused on fixing the finances, repairing services, and rebuilding the economy; and

WHEREAS the current Provincial Government balanced the budget in just four years back in 2020; and

WHEREAS the current Provincial Government is delivering in full on its 2020 Tax Rollback Guarantee one year earlier than planned through initiatives such as indexing the Basic Personal Amount and personal income tax bracket with the rate of inflation; and

WHEREAS the current Provincial Government will continue to lift Manitobans out of poverty by ensuring safe and affordable housing and strengthening social services; and

WHEREAS the current Provincial Government is eliminating education property taxes by 50% in just two years, and maintaining its goal to eliminate them within ten years; and

WHEREAS the current Provincial Government will grow its way out of the deficit caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, and not put the burden on the backs of Manitobans.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED the Legislative Assembly of Manitoba commend and recognize “Budget 2021: Protecting Manitobans, Advancing Manitoba,” for keeping more hard-earned dollars on the tables of Manitobans while also improving and modernizing services for the future recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic.
